Håkon Mjåset Johansen- drums

Bjørn Marius Hegge - double bass/composer

«Hegge» is the up-and coming Norwegian composer and double bass player Bjørn Marius Hegge brand new project, consisting of five of the finest jazz musicians in Scandinavia. They invite the audience into the melodic vibe that existed in the 1960s with catchy grooves, humourous phrasings mixed with strong compositions and playful improvisations. Even though the music is highly influenced by jazz legends such as Cannonball Adderley, Ornette Coleman and Charles Mingus, the band collectively drives their music into a different direction where each and every member freely express themselves.
